

SCGG has become the "go to" recognized organization for information about Sonoma County galleries, art museums and art-related businesses. SCGG now consists of 69 museums, fine art and artisan galleries, non-profit art organizations, art-related businesses and art sponsors, all dedicated to supporting and promoting the visual arts in Sonoma County.

SCGG provides your most targeted, affordable advertising opportunity. Check out what you receive for your membership fee:

SCGG Maps Last year we produced 30,000 full-color Gallery Guides containing member listings and a detailed map of all their locations in the County. These popular guides are distributed through member galleries, chambers of commerce, visitors' centers, art centers and inns and hotels throughout Sonoma County, Marin and San Francisco.

SCGG Website

In 2009, the SCGG website received over 102,000 unique visitors--averaging 280 per day. The website provides each member gallery an information page with images, as well as FREE links to the gallery's website and their events listings--galleries enjoy the benefit of fresh eyes and new inquiries from around the world. In addition, a link to our website also appears on the websites of the Sonoma County Tourism Bureau, Russian River Wine Road, Sonoma County Visitors Bureau and Arts Council of Sonoma.

SCGG Advertising

Last year, we advertised SCGG in the ARTrails and Art at the Source catalogs as well as the Sonoma County Tourism Bureau's quarterly and annual publications.

SCGG Educational and Networking Opportunities

SCGG offers opportunities to connect with other galleries and art businesses allowing us to share our resources and ideas. Members can take pride in belonging to a community that is art centric --a community which creates professional connections with one another.

We invite you to renew your current membership for 2010. Your completed application and 2010 dues must be received by March 7 in order to be included in the new 2010 Gallery Guide and Map.
